- Personal mastery: Members were encouraged to take absolute responsibility for their lives, often to the point of blaming themselves for failures.
- Hierarchical enlightenment: The program promoted the idea that true enlightenment came through structured steps, with Raniere himself as the ultimate guide.
- Elimination of shame: A focus on removing shame and guilt to unlock hidden potential, often through intense psychological exercises.

While these principles have a veneer of psychological empowerment, they often served as tools for control and dependency.

The Inner Work and Exercises

Raniere's program involved a series of internal work exercises designed to deepen members' self-awareness and obedience.

- Mindfulness and introspection: Members engaged in rigorous self-examination.
